Ministry Update March 3, 2019

*The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God our Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with You. Amen.
(2nd Cor 13:14)*

Dear Friends and Partners,

Here we are, well into 2019 and this is my first newsletter this year. The last two months seemed to be very busy for us. I don't know about you, but for us and maybe the world, we seem to be in an intense time spiritually. Good things are happening, but at the same time there seems to be more opposition also.

It is Sunday afternoon as I am writing this. We had our usual Sunday service here for the kids. Joshua is really doing an amazing job, and he is very gifted in teaching. He prepares well and makes his own materials ahead of time. Our two girls are also amazing in how they help the kids, pray for them, encourage, and generally make the whole thing a success. The kids who come here feel loved and they enjoy their time here. Several of the kids continue to have spiritual encounters. Joshua and the girls are gifted in worship, which helps create an atmosphere for the presence of God to move.

We average probably 20 to 30 kids, sometimes a few more show up. However, today I think there was only about 15. Some kids were not allowed to come because there were rumors that a van was going around kidnaping kids to steal their organs. I think it is just a rumor, we have heard the same story several times over the years. In the Philippines rumors go viral fast, whether a person has a cell phone or not, it spreads neighbor to neighbor, and everywhere you go people will be talking about the same thing.

One thing that is happening here and other places in the world is the "suicide challenge" targeting kids. There are apps, games, and videos that are extremely evil out there. You may have heard about one recently in the news again. I am not going to name it, but it is evil to the core and if you have seen a picture of the face on the news, you can feel it.

One sad story from Manila, last week of an 11-year-old boy who got involved in that. When he was at school, he got access to someone's prescription for gout and took all the pills. He was rushed to the hospital. His mother was called and came to the hospital. The mother said when the boy was in ICU, before he died, he was saying ominous phrases. "When my son was in the ICU, he suddenly uttered 'I will follow my master and I will kill them all', she heard him say.

The mother later found things on the boy's cell phone about the suicide challenge and he had a friend who was also involved in it. Obviously, those things can take kids into demon possession. This is an example of the intense spiritual war we are in. The good thing is we win because Jesus has won. However, it is more important than ever to get the Gospel of life out to the young generation so they will learn to choose Life.

I hesitate to share the following because it may be hard for some to believe and accept. However, because of the times we live in, we need to know what God is doing. Some people know that the book of Acts continued and never ended, because they are living it. Others believe that it did end when the first apostles died.

We already know the evil that is happening, since it receives news coverage, but to know what God is doing, we need to hear from His people. Hopefully, you are at a level of revelation to where this will not offend you. If, you want to talk to me about it, I am open and willing to discuss it, send me and email. I have been processing this stuff for years and may be able to help you also.

We are at a time when many in the body of Christ, especially the youth and children, are experiencing encounters with Jesus, being taken to Heaven, seeing angels and other spiritual experiences. If we believe in the power of evil, we must also believe that God is doing greater things, both in numbers and in power. He is actively countering the evil and He is using His people to do it. You are one of them.

This afternoon, a girl we know very well, came to me and said, "I need to share with you something that happened last night." She was still processing it. When she went to her room to go to bed last night the second her head hit the pillow, she was somewhere else. She believes that she was in the USA, possibly a small city, in a southern state.

There was a young black boy in front of her, he was about ten years old. She knew that she was to follow the boy and she sensed that he planned to do harm to himself. She followed him as he went down an alley and into an abandoned building. She said the boy had something that looked like a hypodermic syringe in his hand and she knew he planned to inject himself or stab himself. She sensed that he had been influenced by the suicide challenge. The Lord spoke to her and said, "HE IS MINE." Courage rose up in her, and she became visible to the boy. He was startled when he saw her. She believes that she appeared to him in a light form, he may have thought she was an angel. She said to him, "you need to come home". The boy dropped the needle and started walking toward her. She gave him a hug, she could feel the love of our Father for the boy, it was an intense holy love.

She knew that she must get the boy home, they started walking together and when they got back to the alley where she first met him, they stopped, and she told the boy you need to read the Word to discover God and discover yourself. She was given a "spiritual book of light, which is life". She imparted it to him, and it somehow clothed the boy. They continued on to where the boy lived and entered a small apartment. Inside was the boy's mother.

When the boy's mother saw him, she said, "where have you been, I've been so worried about you?" The boy said I have something to tell you and he began sharing the whole story with his mom. Then the girl was instantly back in her room. She said the whole thing was so vivid and clear, she can describe everything in great detail. She was there. If she meets the boy someday, she will recognize him. She can still see the street, the building, and inside the small apartment where the boy and mother live. (My interjection here, I believe the mother was praying for the boy and this was how God answered the mother's prayer.)

When the girl found herself back in her room, she got up from her bed and began to pace back and forth in her room. She was still overcome by the love she felt for the boy. She began to process everything that had just happened and continued to intercede for the boy. At some point she became aware that something else was about to happen, she said, "I felt ready for anything."

Then a black evil creature appeared in her room. She can describe it in detail, I am just going to summarize this part. She said this thing was different from other evil spirits and demons she has dealt with before, she believes this thing somehow has a presence in physical form on earth. She was sure that it was the evil spirit behind the suicide challenge. She had no fear and courage rose up in her. She was sure that all she needed to do was just say a word, so she said "depart" and it was gone. Again, she started walking around the room, processing.

After a while, she decided she was going to write down the things she could about this experience, and she sensed that it was not over yet. She took her notebook and pen but before she could start writing she noticed the pillow and felt a pull and need to lay down again. She wondered if she lays on the pillow will she be taken somewhere again? Once again, as soon as her head hit the pillow she was immediately in another place. This time she was in a park where many children were playing. Then the black creature appeared in the park. It was targeting the children and laid hands on one of them. (The following paragraph was written by the girl.)

"I felt very troubled about the whole thing. I wanted to immediately take action and do something to try to stop the move of this creature from touching the children. But I knew that I needed to stand where I was for now and watch. I observed what was happening, I kept my eyes on the child that the black creature had his hand on. I was greatly troubled by what I saw happening, the child began to take on some of the features of the evil creature. I began to cry out to God and said, "God I don't know what to do, what do I do, I need to do something," Immediately, I was conscious of myself holding a bowl of water, clear as crystal and as blue as the most beautiful blue sea. I heard God say, "give it to them." Again, I felt strong and confident and quickly began to do this. I saw in the children the longing for this water, and their desire and need. I held it in front of them and they reached for it. The water was healing to their soul, and life to them. These are children of God, and they belong to Him"

She then immediately found herself back in her room. Once again, she began to process what happened. She believes the children were changed by the water and would go on to mature in the Lord. She began to feel very tired but did not want to lay her head on the pillow, just in case. She had enough for one night and decided to sleep flat on the bed. She had a peaceful sleep the rest of the night.

I know that sounds wild, if you are not used to hearing things like that. I totally believe these supernatural experiences are from God. One reason is because I know some of the people having them, I know their walk in the Lord, I see the fruit in their lives. Another thing that greatly impacts me is that they are being taken into spiritual maturity and understanding in an accelerated way. Things that took me forty years to see and understand, they are already being given.

Another major thing that proves it to me is the humility that comes with these experiences. They do not talk about them until the time is right, and they never seek their own glory. They do not get on facebook and broadcast the awesome experiences they are having. They treat them as personal and sacred from their Father. Even the young kids here are reluctant to talk about their experiences, some have tears as they share what the Lord has shown them. Another thing that impresses me, is that the teenagers who are experiencing these things feel burdened for the younger children, to teach them how to walk in these things. I truly believe we are seeing the beginning of the prophesied nameless-faceless, Jesus generation rising.

This newsletter is much longer than I planned. I was just going to give a short update and had already started writing it, including the part about the suicide challenge, and the boy that died in Manila. That is when the girl came in and shared what happened last night. At first, I did not consider including her experience. However, I do believe the Lord is saying we need to share it with our friends and partners.

In other news, we are beginning to publish again at www.God.net , it really seems to be God's timing. We are believing that God.net is to be used to take people into salvation and be a resource to encourage this generation into spiritual maturity. We have a new salvation page and have already received two testimonies, a first-time salvation and a recommitment. I am doing a series called The Age of Glory, the first two new articles are there now. I am working on the third. We have been making changes to the site, the best we know how, with limited tech knowledge. Joshua is helping with that also, as he is learning web development, and may know more than me already.

If you have made it this far in the newsletter you must be a partner or at least care about us and the ministry. I want to thank you again. In everything we do you are an important part of it. The Lord has a few very faithful people that keep us going in all we do here. We are thankful beyond what we can fully express. If you were someone who gave in the past, even one time, we are thankful, you have been a part of the journey.

If you have been a part of our journey over the last eleven years in The Philippines, you have a right to know our situation. When we first had the vision to start a children's home and had the opportunity to purchase the big house, we made the vision and opportunity known. People gave and it was amazing how God provided to be able to purchase the place.

After we purchased the property, we were not able to raise the large consistent funds that would be required to operate a children's home. We also had hoped to purchase a property that was behind us. It was part of the vision to make a small working farm there. But land prices increased, and we were not able to purchase the lot. Eventually, a local hardware company purchased the land and made a cement brick factory and gravel yard there.

Over time, the town that we are in has grown and become a tourist destination. When we first came here, it was a quiet, peaceful place, and with a beautiful view behind us. All that has changed. The highway is often busy with traffic now. We are surrounded on each side by commercial establishments. The value of the place is now commercial, not peaceful residential. We have some ideas of potential business but would need help with developing and financing.

It has been increasingly difficult for us to keep up with maintenance, and the cost of everything has increased. We may need to decide this year about whether to sell the place or not. I am mentioning all this as a prayer point. We continue to prayerfully consider our options. We are not discouraged, but very thankful for all that God has done, and is doing. We remain very optimistic and sincerely believe the best is yet to come. The Lord is doing great things.

I should also mention that over the years we have grown in the Lord and our vision is different now. Rather than focusing on a few kids that we could raise in a home, at great financial cost, we believe the Lord is now calling us to focus on reaching many. Which, we believe we can do at much less financial cost, with the Lord's help.

Thank you for standing with us. We pray for the Lord to multiply blessings for you and your family, in every way and in greater measure than you can imagine.

I never stop giving thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, would give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the perception of your mind may be enlightened so you may know what is the hope of

His calling, what are the glorious riches of His inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of His power to us who believe, according to the working of His vast strength.
(Ephesians 1:16-19)
